Recap

Happy Friday Unit Troy! Just like that, we are wrapping up another month and going into November with much to look forward to. Once again as a reminder, next week begins the Hybrid Learning Schedule where cadets in cohorts A or B will be attending school twice a week, and cadets in cohort C will remain online throughout the whole week. Also coming up, Admin will be holding Academic Advancement Exams for cadets from 11/9 to 11/13 from 1500-1530 each day at Troy. Additionally, to take drill advancement tests, you must fill out this form by 11/14 in order to test between 11/16 to 11/20. Advancements are NOT mandatory but will allow you to advance into a higher rate. For more details, please refer to the

Happy Halloween!

For a fun little segment, I asked all of our NSI's what their favorite candy is! Here are their responses:

CDR Lauper: Skor Toffee Bars

LT Fronek: any Swiss chocolate

1st Sgt Lyon: Peanut M&Ms, Almond Snickers, and Reese's Peanut Butter Cups (in that order!)

1st Sgt Barnes: Pink Starbursts and Smarties

Have fun and stay safe this Halloween! :)

From the NSI's

Hear from our Naval Science Instructors!

CDR Lauper:

"As we say farewell to October, we look forward to November. This is usually a very busy month for us, but this is not a normal year. Most of our competitions will be virtual for the foreseeable future. Troy High School will begin hybrid instruction on Monday, November 2nd. Due to a medical condition that places me and my family at higher risk, I have been granted the accommodation to continue teaching virtually until it is safe enough for school to return to its normal schedule. Seniors who are in cohorts A or B will continue to receive instruction via Chromebook while they are on campus. Cohort C will continue online learning as before. Each of the other NSIs will communicate their schedules to their Cadets. I am proud of our Cadets, who continue to show great dedication in attending class every day and participating in the learning."

Some key dates:

- From the Naval History and Heritage Command (NHHC): Oct. 27, 1922 – The Navy League of the United States sponsors the first celebration of Navy Day to focus public attention on the importance of the U.S. Navy. The date is selected because it is Theodore Roosevelt's birthday. Navy Day is last observed Oct. 27, 1949. In the 1970s, Adm. Elmo R. Zumwalt worked with the Navy League to define Oct. 13 to celebrate the Navy. Visit the NHHC website to see images and posters related to Navy Day: <https://go.usa.gov/x74h7>
- On November 10th, we celebrate the birthday of the United States Marine Corps. This is normally a time for a ceremony and cake. More information on the history and traditions surrounding the Marine Corps birthday can be found at: <https://www.military.com/marine-corps-birthday/history-of-the-marine-corps-birthday-celebration.html>
- November 11th is Veterans Day. We would normally be marching in the Fullerton Veterans Day parade and supporting other events in the region. On this day, please take the time to thank the veterans that you know.
