Recap

Hello Unit Troy! We hope everyone has had an outstanding first month of 2022. This past month Troy NJROTC has been busy competing and hosting numerous competitions. Keep reading to find out more about how we placed in those competitions. For more updates, please check the Facebook Group and the Unit Discord.

Troy 22

Last Saturday Troy's class of 2022 as well as 7 underclassmen competed at the Murrieta Mesa Drill Meet. Although the team was formed less than a month ago they placed 1st overall against the unqualified teams. Congratulations to the team and Thank You to all the parents and supporters who came and made sure our cadets looked sharp!

Cyber Semifinals

On January 22nd, Troy NJROTC teams competed in the AFA CyberPatriot XIV semifinals, the penultimate round of the contest. Every year, twelve JROTC teams – the highest-scoring two teams from each service and at maximum one team from each unit – earn an all-expenses paid trip to the national finals in Bethesda!

Troy delivered a stellar performance, placing tenth, fourth, and first, but only the first-placed team will progress to Nationals. Shoutout to cadets William Zhang, Zachary Dang, Rohan Patel, Andrea Florendo, Puru Jain, and Anuj Patel from tenth-placed team 3391, cadets Max Hong, Derek Peng, Sohee Kim, William Chang, Aaron Shan, and Eric Choi from fourth-placed team 0282, and cadets Brian Ni, Johnny Ni, Taiyu Chen, Chan Chung, Justin Huang, and Anna Wu, who will represent Troy as team 0278 – "Runtime Terror" – on March 17th at the national championships in Maryland.

Orienteering

This year's Orienteering State Competition was recently held on the 23rd of January where 19 of our Troy cadets competed. At the competition, a total of 9 different JROTC schools, 2 coming from Arizona and 1 hailing from Las Vegas battled to secure a ticket to get sent to the orienteering nationals competition. In total 5 teams from Area 11 and 1 team from Area 13 qualified to compete at the national orienteering championships. Troy cadets did an outstanding job, placing in individual categories as well. Congratulations to cadets Dimitri Kouloumbis, Lauren Gao, and Ostty Wang who took first place in the male varsity, girls junior varsity, and freshman categories respectively.
